

ICDE

A global knowledge exchange community

Torunn Gjelsvik
Secretary General

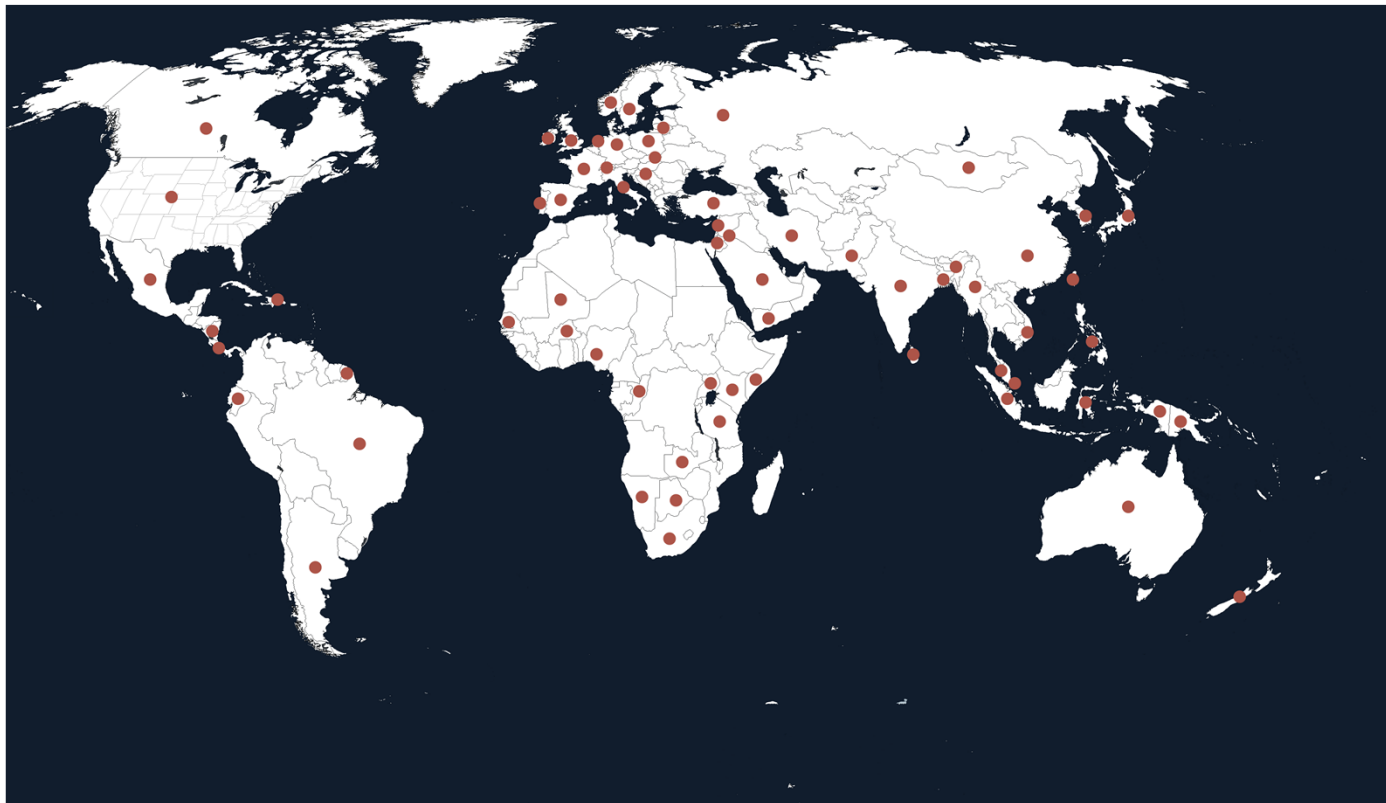

INTERNATIONAL
COUNCIL FOR OPEN AND
DISTANCE EDUCATION

ICDE in short:

- Founded 1938 in Canada
- A global, not for profit NGO that works towards bringing accessible, quality education to all through open, flexible and distance learning
- Hosted and partly funded by Norway since 1988
- In formal consultative partnership with UNESCO
- 250+ members and partners from 70 countries impacting over 15 million students across all continents

A truly global organization

How we work

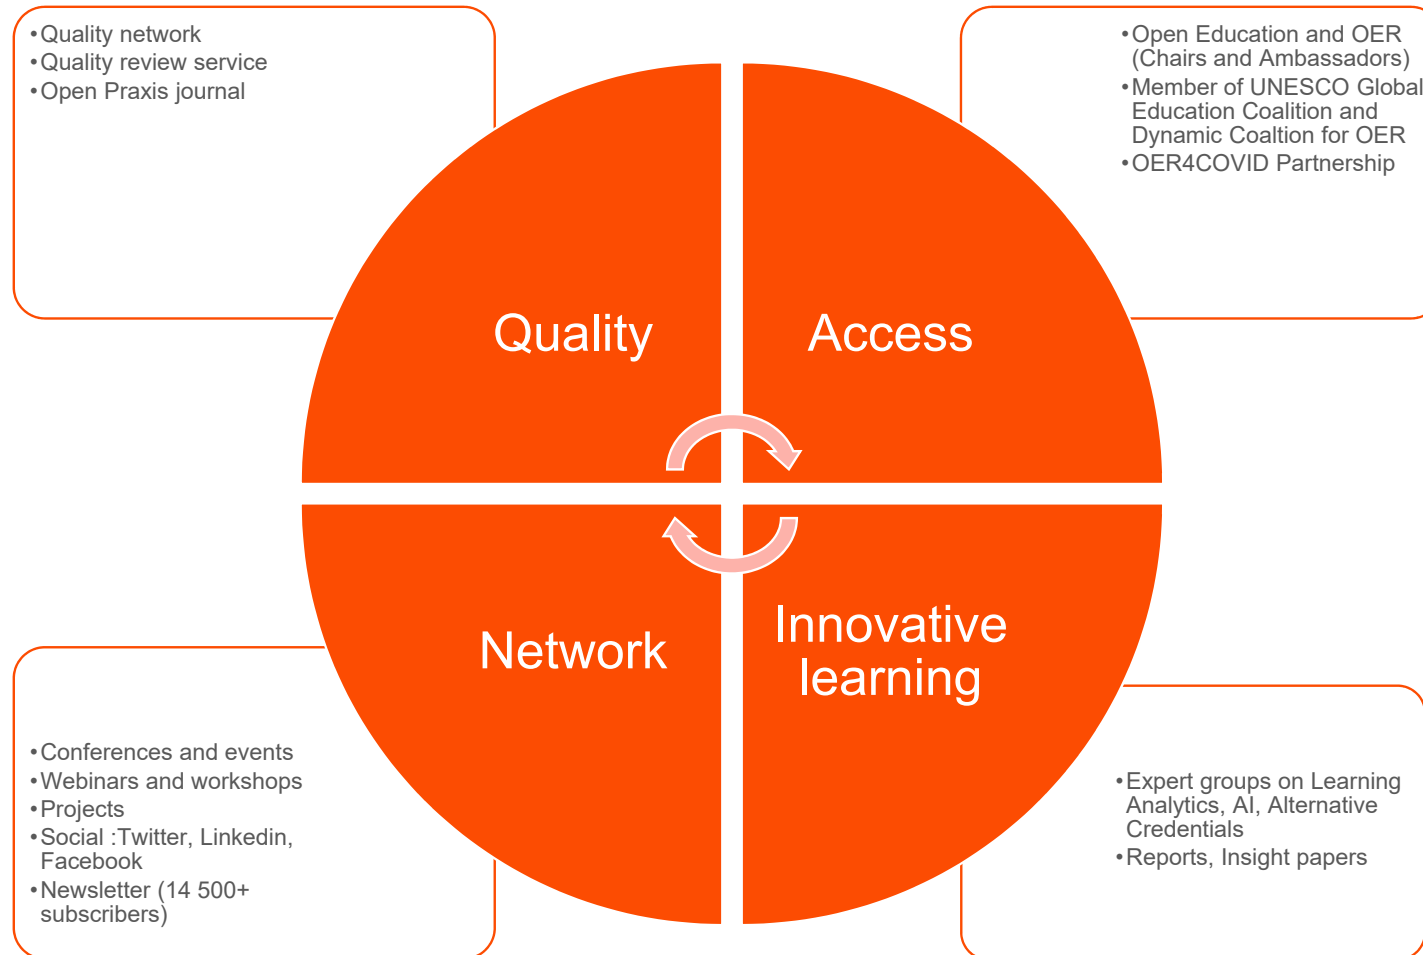

With members and partners

- Institutions (HEIs)
- Individuals (Experts/Faculty)
- Associations
(Regional/Global)

Different levels

- Policy (with UNESCO)
- Advocacy and Leadership (with rectors/presidents and committees/networks)
- Best practice in open, flexible and distance education (with expert members and partners)

ICDEs core focus areas of open, flexible and distance education

An example: Capacity building initiative for OER

Registration

OER, Copyright and open licensing in a digital world

Course starts: 9 September 2020

Free Online Professional Development and Certification Opportunity

In partnership with

United Nations
Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization

OER
Dynamic Coalition Initiative

INTERNATIONAL
COUNCIL FOR OPEN AND DISTANCE EDUCATION

Thank you!

Sign up for interest to the OER course

Join our community – become a member!

Subscribe to our newsletter

INTERNATIONAL
COUNCIL FOR OPEN AND
DISTANCE EDUCATION

